CAPTAIN
Gary B. Dye
Commanding Officer, NETPDTC
United States Navy

Gary Bryan Dye was born in Fort Leonard Wood, MO. He attended the University of Missouri, earning a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration. Upon graduation, he received a regular commission in the United States Navy through the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps (NROTC).

After commissioning, and Naval Flight Officer training, Lieutenant (Junior Grade) Dye reported to Patrol Squadron FOUR, Naval Air Station, Barbers Point, HI, where he qualified as a Tactical Coordinator and Mission Commander flying the P-3B Orion. He also served as Tactics Officer, Avionics and Armament Division Officer, and Line Division Officer. His squadron completed multiple deployments throughout the Western Pacific and Indian Ocean.

In May 1987, following duty as an NROTC instructor at the University of Nebraska, Lieutenant Commander Dye reported to Commander, Fleet Air Mediterranean, Naples, Italy, for duty as Flag Secretary and Assistant Chief of Staff for Manpower and Administration (N1).

In May 1989, Lieutenant Commander Dye returned to Barbers Point, HI, for assignment with Commander Patrol Wing TWO, Barbers Point, HI, where he served as the Current Operations Officer and as Task Group Officer in Charge of JCS tasked "Pony Express" Operations. In August 1990, he reported to Patrol Squadron TWENTY-TWO, Barbers Point, HI, for Department Head Duty, flying the P-3C Update II. He served as Squadron Operations Officer, Detachment Officer in Charge, and Task Group Operations Officer while deployed to Misawa AB, Japan.

Following Department Head duty, Lieutenant Commander Dye reported to the Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, CA, as a student in Manpower, Personnel, and Training Analysis Curriculum. In June 1994, he graduated with distinction and was awarded a Masters of Science Degree in Systems Management.

In July 1994, Commander Dye was assigned to the Bureau of Naval Personnel, Washington, DC, where he served as the Navy's Manpower Accountant (PERS-522), Branch Head for Battle Forces Manpower OPNAV (N122C) and later as Deputy (N122B).

In October 1996, Commander Dye assumed Command of Navy Recruiting District, Michigan. Two years later Captain Dye reported to the Commander in Chief, United States Atlantic Fleet, Norfolk, VA, as Deputy Director for Manpower and Personnel and, later, as Deputy Inspector General. On July 14, 2000, Captain Dye assumed Command of the Enlisted Placement Management Center (EPMAC), New Orleans, LA.

On December 21, 2001, Captain Dye reported to his present duty station as Commanding Officer of Naval Education and Training Professional Development and Technology Center (NETPDTC), Pensacola, FL. Captain Dye's awards include the Legion of Merit, Navy Meritorious Service Medal (gold star in lieu of fourth award), the Navy Commendation Medal (gold star in lieu of second award), the Navy Achievement Medal and various unit and service ribbons.
