NETPDTTC INSTRUCTION 1601.1B

Subj: COMMAND WATCH ORGANIZATION AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Ref: (a) U.S. Navy Regulations

Encl: (1) Responsibilities of the Command Duty Officer
(2) Command Duty Officer Personnel Qualification
Standard (PQS)

1. Purpose. To establish Command Duty Officer (CDO) watchstanding procedures and to assign responsibilities and provide instruction to the watchstanders.
2. Cancellation. NETPDTTCINST 1601.1A.
3. Revision. Since this is a major revision, marginal notations are not annotated. This instruction should be read in its entirety.
4. Background. Reference (a) requires the Commanding Officer to establish such watches as necessary for the proper operation and safety of the command. Enclosure (1) outlines the responsibilities of the CDO. Specific support functions require additional watches at the departmental level. Watches are defined as duties assigned outside regular working hours. The CDO watch bill will be submitted by the Watch Bill Coordinator no later than the 16th of each month to the Senior Watch Officer (SWO) for approval.
5. Periods of Absence. Personnel on the watch bill considering regular leave, TAD assignment, or any other period of absence will route leave/TAD/special request chits via the Watch Bill Coordinator prior to the 15th of the month preceding the expected absence. Personnel submitting requests subsequent to the 15th will arrange for their own standby and notify the Watch Bill Coordinator. The Watch Bill Coordinator must also be notified in the event of an unplanned absence; i.e., emergency leave, medical reasons, etc. Supernumeraries, when required, will be provided by the department responsible for the individual needing the relief. The Code LCPO is responsible to the SWO for this function.

22 JAN 2001

6. Exchange of Duty. Watchstanders desiring to exchange watches will submit requests to the Watch Bill Coordinator.

7. Specific Responsibilities

a. The Executive Officer will:

(1) Direct the establishment of the Command Watch Organization to provide for the proper operation and safety of the command.

(2) Designate, in writing, the SWO.

(3) Monitor the Command Watch Organization and provide guidance as necessary.

(4) Approve all departmental watch requirements that may or may not effect the Command Watch Organization. This is to include all phone or security type watches.

b. Department Directors and Special Assistants will:

(1) Submit recommended departmental watch requirements to the Executive Officer for approval and inclusion in this instruction.

(2) Ensure personnel assigned command watches are relieved of departmental responsibilities to the extent necessary to ensure proper command watch functioning.

(3) Keep the SWO informed of any departmental functions occurring outside normal working hours that may affect command watch functions.

c. The Senior Watch Officer will:

(1) Be responsible to the Executive Officer for administration of the Command Watch Organization and institute guidelines for the proper execution of the watches.

(2) Supervise the training and assignment of all personnel standing watches.

(3) Make recommendations to the Executive Officer for revisions to the Command Watch Organization.

22 JAN 2001

(4) Ensure bi-monthly training is conducted, as per approved training plan.

d. The Watch Bill Coordinator will:

(1) Be designated, in writing, by the Executive Officer.

(2) Be responsible to the SWO for the administration of the Command Watch Organization.

(3) Submit the proposed station watch bill for CDO no later than the 16th of each month.

(4) Assign indoctrination training watches for CDO watchstanders and monitor the training.

e. Code Watch Bill Representatives:

(1) Submit changes/improvements to the Command Watch Organization to the SWO for consideration.

(2) Attend all meetings when directed by the SWO.

(3) Assist SWO as directed with training, administration, coordination, and execution of this instruction.

f. All Watchstanders will:

(1) Stand their watches in the prescribed uniform of the day.

(2) Not consume any alcoholic beverages while in a duty status, on their duty day, or 8 hours prior to assuming the duty.

(3) Satisfactorily complete the qualifications as per enclosure (2) of this instruction.
